First Hugo School: 1894 - 1912 On April 13, 1892, Caroline Niday Sexton, owner of large tracts of land in the area, and original Donation Land claimant, granted two acres of land to School District #22 of the Lucky Queen Precinct.

The first school to serve the Hugo area was part of the Lucky Queen Precinct and built in 1894. It was the Lucky Queen School from 1894 - 1896.

It became the first Hugo School after Hugo got a post office in August 22, 1896. The first school building served in later years as a home for the Mt. This structure has been the club house of the Hugo Ladies Club for many decades.
