1912 S. W. Reynolds has just sold to Mr. Shard of Ashland, a 40-acre tract of wild land 2 ½ miles west of Hugo, the price recorded being $50 per acre. Mr. Shard has secured a house near the tract in which to live until he can build one on the place, and then will proceed to clear the land and make improvements. It is stated that 30 acres of the tract will make good plow land and much of it is ideal for cherries, which fruit has made the Hugo district famous. Rogue River Courier. December 13, 1912. Hugo Neighborhood Association & Historical Society's Mission

This information brochure is one of a series of documents published by the Hugo Neighborhood Association & Historical Society (Hugo Neighborhood). It is designed to be shared with neighbors for the purpose of helping protect our rural quality of life by promoting an informed citizenry in decision-making. The Hugo Neighborhood is an informal nonprofit charitable and educational organization with a land use and history mission of promoting the social welfare of its neighbors.

Land Use & History

The Hugo Neighborhood's land use mission is to promote Oregon Statewide Goal 1 — Citizen Involvement, and to preserve, protect, and enhance the livability and economic viability of its farms, forests, and rural neighbors. It will act, if requested, as a technical resource assisting neighbors to represent themselves.

Its history mission is to educate, collect, preserve, interpret, and research its local history and to encourage public interest in the history of the Hugo area.

Volunteer membership dues are $10.00 annually per family and normally used for paper, ink, envelopes, publications and mailings. Send us your e-mail address if you want to know what we are doing.
