The town was platted and there was the Three Pines Fruit Tracts just to the east.

1925 “In 2000 Verlin remembered an old garage type of building (approximately 18' by 20') in the location that Clarence Kolkow indicated was the old green Three Pines Post Office building that closed in 1921. In 1925 the Booher family moved into this garage when they got kicked out of the hotel after Ed Kolkow bought the hotel for the wood. Ed Kolkow used the wood to expand his home (or build a garage) at the Oxyoke Service Station.”¹
