Chrissy was raised in Hugo on the family dirt farm. She loved the rural areas of Oregon, swimming and rafting in the Rogue River, trips to the coast and exploring the county. She also loved animals, worked with horses for a time on a ranch, was a pet groomer for a number of years, and had a succession of pet cats and dogs of her own as well as always willing to house/pet sit for friends. She was an avid pool player and had played on a couple of local leagues.

As a local “character” of many years, Chrissy leaves behind a large number of acquaintances, co-workers, and friends. They share in the fun she brought to life forever in their memories.
