

Hugo Tombstone Quarry Section of Applegate Trail

Hugo Tombstone Quarry Section Of Applegate Trail¹⁻⁴ The approximate 1.5 miles of the Hugo Tombstone Quarry Section (Quarry Section) of the Applegate Trail is from the East I-5 Manzanita Rest Stop in the south to the 1880s emigrant Pleasant Valley Cemetery (PVC) in the north, Josephine County, Oregon. This trail segment includes the Hugo Granite Tombstone Quarry Site and hence the name for this segment of the trail.

Historic Places Nomination A project of the Hugo Neighborhood, Hugo Emigrant Trails Committee (HETC); Josephine County Historical Society (JCHS); and Rogue (RA) Advocates is to determine the significance of Quarry Section of the Applegate Trail. The method is the compliance process of nominating the Quarry Section to the National Park Service (through the Oregon State Historic Preservation Office) for consideration of listing to the National Register of Historic Places (National Register).

Historic Places Nomination Process⁶⁻⁷ The National Register project to nominate the Quarry Section of the Applegate Trail to the National Register will have three major elements.

- . Inventory
- . National Register Evaluation Criteria & Integrity Standards
- . National Register Recommendations

The goal is understanding the facts well enough in relationship to the criteria and standards to develop a quality recommendation.
